

Certified

Corporation

Our products carry the B Corp seal, letting consumers know that we meet the highest standards of social and environmental performance. In other words, we're using our business as a force for good.

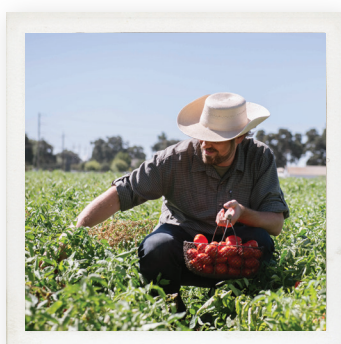

Family Owned

A family-run business for over 30 years, we are purpose driven and committed to doing the right thing for people and our planet.

Cooked with Care

Our meals are made from whole organic ingredients and simmered and stirred in real kitchens, resulting in delicious, homemade flavors of the highest quality. The unmatched taste is what keeps consumers coming back for more.

Committed to Organic

We've been committed to organic and non GMO since our start because we know it's better for people and our planet. But we also think that it just plain tastes better. By using organic fruits, vegetables and grains in our products, we avoid over 700 chemicals that can be found in conventional food production.

Vegetarian & Plant Based

We've been 100% vegetarian since our start, and more than 60% of our portfolio is plant based. Our products are trusted mainstays for the growing population of vegetarians, vegans and flexitarians.

Something for Everyone

No meat, seafood, poultry, eggs or peanuts are ever used in Amy's products. Dairy cheeses are made with pasteurized rBST hormone-free milk and don't contain animal enzymes or rennet. And we make meals suitable for all diets:  Gluten Free  Vegan
