PROCESS

We seek to respect all processes in the most traditional way to maintain its unique flavor and texture, both in the corn mass and in the finished products. That is the reason why we use our nixtamalized process with 100% corn.

A wide-angle photograph of a large industrial facility, likely a food processing plant. The scene is filled with multiple levels of conveyor belts and metal grates. Several workers wearing hairnets and masks are visible, engaged in tasks. Large industrial fans are positioned throughout the space. The overall environment is clean and organized, with various equipment and materials visible in the background.
